AIR MAIL

STATOTHR

I was most ~~impressed~~^{pleased} and entertained by your letter and envy all your wanderings, although parts of it sounded a little rugged.

I have sent a memorandum to Personnel noting particularly that you still have the ability to get around in a lively manner and asked them to indicate whether there are any interviews so that they can notify me before the fifteenth.

I wish I could give you a definite offer of a bed, but like everyone else in Washington we have a pretty steady influx of visitors through the Spring. However, maybe when you get here things will be different. You didn't say definitely whether you are bringing your bride and we'd love to meet her, so bring her along.

Jeanie and the kids are well, and I saw Harry yesterday.
Marian is just about to produce and probably we will know what by the time you arrive.

Sincerely,

LAWRENCE R. HOUSTON
